

ISPAL National Sports Development Seminar

Supporting the people behind the people

Tuesday 19th – Wednesday 20th June 2007

East Midlands Conference Centre | Nottingham

With the emergence of ISPAL, the different strengths of ILAM and NASD were unified and bigger and better things have become possible - we have seized this opportunity to take the national sports development seminar and create the single most significant event for industry professionals this year.

ISPAL's influence will ensure that the event forms part of a delegate's continuous professional development and wherever possible we have linked learning opportunities to the national standards. Because the seminar has been put together BY jobbing professionals FOR jobbing professionals, the 2007 event will be a unique opportunity to network, gather information, learn and develop the key skills necessary for all of US in the industry to perform our jobs to the highest standard.

Moving the event to June has provided us with the chance to include an additional strand for the strategic managers of sports development and physical activity professionals, to ensure even more opportunities for delegates to meet, learn and network with industry colleagues.

Keynotes will include a clarion call that we should be "Unhooking Electrodes – Deprogramming Sports Development" from John Eady, KKP and a presentation from Dr Mark Nesti, York St John University, on 'Personality is Everything' – proof that it is the personal authentic self that is key to real development work. And, delivering his inaugural presentation for ISPAL will be the newly appointed Chair, Peter Mann.

Upskilling workshops and Updating sessions will focus on the topical issues facing professionals within the generic and sports specific development arena and will include:

UPSKILLING WORKSHOPS	UPDATING SESSIONS
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ensuring Inclusive PE and School Sport • Increasing Employability and Skills through Sport • Proving that Sport and Culture make a Different • Addressing Need through Facility Development • Utilising Effective Partnership Working to Deliver on the Health Agenda • Using Sport to Regenerate Communities • Engaging the Non-Engaged 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sport England's Performance Management Framework • Community Wellness • Extended schools • Effective school-club links • The 2010 targets for PE and Physical Activity • Sport in the Youth Sector • Building Schools for the Future • The Improvement Agenda

With more than 300 sports management and development professionals and major decision makers from all over the UK and beyond expected to attend this two-day residential event – make sure you secure your place NOW. It is, quite simply, THE training, updating and networking event for everyone involved in the sport and physical activity sector – you can't afford not to be there.

Cancellation Policy – We know that sometimes you may not be able to attend an ISPAL conference that you have booked. When this happens we would prefer it if you found a substitute from your organisation and let us know about the switch. If you really can't do this and we are still a month away from the conference we will have to charge you £25.00 + VAT to cover administration. With less than a month to go we will have confirmed the venue and will therefore have to charge you 50% of the conference fee. And if you pull out less than 14 days from the conference we will need to charge you for the full amount. We would much rather not do any of this, but ISPAL is a membership organisation and we have to be careful with our members' funds. All cancellations must be made in writing.

From time to time we may use the information that you have provided us with for the purposes of ISPAL or to permit other organisations registered under the Data Protection Act 1998 to write to you about out/their products or services. If you would prefer not to hear from such organisations, please inform ISPAL by e-mailing info@ispal.org.
