Regional Programme Director 'Living Well in the West Midlands'

£41,655 - £44,193

3 year Fixed Term Contract

We're looking for a dynamic individual to be responsible for the delivery of the West Midlands £6.79 million regional Health and Wellbeing portfolio entitled 'Living Well in the West Midlands'. Funding for the portfolio has been secured via a successful regional bid to the Big Lottery Well-being Fund. The candidate will ensure governance of the approved projects, ensuring the programme is delivered successfully on time and within budget, manage the regional learning from the programme, oversee a high profile regional communication programme as well as identifying future funding streams for project sustainability.

The candidate will be responsible for a team consisting of a Regional Project Manager and Support Officer and must be flexible as travel will be necessary to work with the Big Lottery Head Office and the Project Leads across the West Midlands.

The candidate will be educated to degree level and be able to demonstrate direct involvement in large scale and diverse programme management.

For an informal discussion about the post please contact Zena Lynch Tel: 0788411 0499.
